MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

This marks the 2nd half of the year. On this occasion I'd like to inform you how a hive selects their Queen. It is not a genetic trait, it is not a special bee they choose, and it is not because one bee is more special than the other.

The Hive chooses their Queen by ONE aspect. It is a bee, just as normal as any other bee in the hive. They care for it; they nurture it and feed this bee royal nectar to become their Queen. She then knows what her duty is, she helps the hive, cares for the hive and does what the hive needs to survive.

Masonry and their Master are a lot like this. I am your master, and I am not special. I am equal to every single one of our members. I have been taken care of and loved by every one of you brothers. I am here to thank you for all of your brotherly love, which without, I could have never been your Master.

~Fraternally, W.M. Jason R. Gadue
